SOUTH CLEANS UP NSL AWARDS

COCKER SCORES FOUR IN RINGWOOD RAMPAGE

● Ringwood's Peter Cocker (centre) is congratulated by his team-mates after scoring his fourth goal against Caulfield.

SOUTH Melbourne put all the disappointments of the past season behind it as it made a clean sweep of the major awards at last Friday's NSL presentation night.

Socceroo and South "action man", Paul Wade deservedly carried off the premier award, the Rothmans Medal, winning it by five points from young Sydney Olympic midfielder Jason Polak with the brilliant young Brisbane Lions goalkeeper Jason Kearton a further point away third.

It was sweet revenge for Wade, who lost out to Andrew Zinni of Juventus last year by only one point.

South striker Paul Trimboli took out the under/21 Player of the Year Award and also polled well in the Rothmans, finishing in joint fourth place with Adelaide City's Steve Maxwell.

Brian Garvey completed a triumphant trifecta for Melbourne's top club, when he walked away with the Coach of the Year Award.

And as if to rub salt into wounds, our FIFA referee

Chris Bambridge became the first whistler from Victoria to carry off the Referee of the Year Award.

State League Title Race still wide open

WITH only two rounds to go, the State League title is up for grabs, with five clubs still well in the hunt.

In another round of topsy-turvy results, not one of the top six clubs could manage a win.

It is all boiling up to the closest of photo-finishes.

COACHES' UNION OVERDUE?

BY sheer coincidence, as the news of yet another coach's sacking came through, I was talking to one of our more articulate coaches, Croydon's Miron Bleiberg.

Bleiberg has long felt that coaches need the security that players enjoy and he keeps coming back to the point that there should be some sort of coaches union, such as exists in Europe and Israel for example.

So far this season in the State League alone, we have seen Frank McAleer, Rocco Ille, Terry Hennessy and now Jimmy Rooney sacked with virtually only five minutes notice.

They have no redress whatsoever, and in no other walks of life could this happen.

Just consider for a moment, the difference between the way those four have been dumped without a cent of compensation and compare it with the money the Sydney Swans will have to pay Tommy Hafey for the privilege of getting rid of him.

It little matters that Hafey was probably getting paid a hundred-fold what the soccer coaches were being paid... the difference lies in the fact that Hafey had a contract and those four fellows didn't.

Isn't it ludicrous that clubs value their players highly enough to put them on contract, yet treat the person solely responsible for selecting them and guiding them to whatever success the club might enjoy so shabbily?

It is Bleiberg's view, and he's probably quite right, that some sort of coach's union is overdue.

If coaches were on contract club committees, however nettled they might be with the previous Sunday's loss, might have second thoughts about dumping their coach on the Tuesday night, especially if it was going to cost them money.

ANONYMOUS PHONE CALLS ARE A NO-NO

And talking of abusive phone calls, we receive our share at this newspaper.

Now we don't mind hearing from our readers, in fact we welcome it. After all, without some feedback we wouldn't know whether we were doing right or wrong, would we... but anonymous phone calls we are not going to tolerate.

It is in the nature of things that readers who ring us when they want to get some grievance or other off their chests and that's fine, as long as they identify themselves.

But if they want to abuse us from behind a shield of anonymity... that's not on.

Recently one of our staff, a fellow incidentally who treks faithfully to TWO State League games every weekend, hail rain or shine, was subjected to a ten-minute harangue from some fellow who refused to give his name.

He was complaining it seems, about our supposed lack of objectivity, and since people only believe what they want to believe, it was a waste of time arguing with him.

As my old granny used to say about explanations... your friends don't need them and your enemies won't believe them.

So be warned if you ring me and refuse to identify yourself I'll hang up, and so will the rest of us.

In line with standard newspaper practice, we don't publish any that are signed, favourable or otherwise.

PUSKAS CLINIC STARTS SOON

Following on our story on the legendary Ferenc Puskas we had several calls asking for more information about his junior coaching scheme.

We have now been informed that his clinics will start on September 25 and anyone interested should ring 584 6905 for more details.

GOOD NEWS FOR FANS OF ENGLISH SOCCER

If, like me, you are looking forward to the resumption of English League soccer on the ABC, you'll have to be patient a little longer.

You must have read about all the bickering that went on in Britain between the TV channels and the football league clubs over TV rights and although the matter was finally settled to the satisfaction of the League, the costs to overseas have risen considerably.

A spokesman for ABC Sport told me last week that Sydney is negotiating hard for the rights and a satisfactory settlement is expected soon.

So just be patient and meanwhile, don't give the poor girl on the ABC switchboard too much agro... it isn't her fault!

HOW NOT TO PRESENT AN AWARDS NIGHT

Wasn't the NSL presentation night awful

The only reason I didn't switch off after ten minutes was that I just had to know who the Rothmans Medallist was going to be and I was duly rewarded and delighted when it turned out to be Paul Wade.

But I had to sit through an excruciatingly embarrassing hour of how not to conduct a presentation night.

(Come to think of it, I didn't have to, because Andy Whatsisname gave it all away when he interviewed Wade before the thing started.)

I still can't decide which was the low point of the proceedings.

Was it when the bloke from the brewery, after introducing the chairman of the NSL as Pam somebody, fumbled through the rest of his introduction and then handed the wrong trophy to Marconi president Tony Labbozzetta?

Was it the egregious Les Murray with his off-colour comments about all and sundry?

Was it the writhing, undulating singer (for want of a better word) with the inaudible lyrics plus the ethnic comic with the stale patter?

Or was it the pathetic interviews by people who don't do their homework, like the girl who asked Dave Mitchell why he had a Scottish accent?

It's a close one but I think the tripe medal for lack of taste has to go to Andy Whatsit ("are youse fellows queuing for the toilets?"), if only because he has been so consistently under the arm all the year.

That beautiful cup that was handed to Labbozzetta by mistake was, by the way, the Beach Fashions trophy, which used to be the Nanda Cup, which used to be the Philips Cup.

It was an awful boo-boo that no-one thought to ask the sponsor to hand it over to the winner, APIA-Leichhardt.

Is that how sponsors are treated after they pull out?

The whole sorry affair leaves you wondering just who does run the League... is it the NSL or SBS TV?

BILL FLEMING DINNER SEPTEMBER 30

Which brings me to THE social highlight of the year, the Bill Fleming award night at the Sheraton Hotel on September 30.

The night is hosted by the Offside Club and the VSF and presentations on the night will be made to the Victorian Under 21 player of the year, the Victorian referee of the Year, the Victorian coach of the year and of course the Bill Fleming Medal will be presented.

In addition, Soccer Star's Ansett and Adidas award winners will receive their prizes.

It will be a great night and since this year it is mixed, don't use the excuse that your missus wouldn't let you come, bring her along too, she'll enjoy the comedian at least.

For further details and bookings ring Anna on 429 6288, but hurry, tickets are going fast.

COME HERE, LITTLE BROTHER

In a nice little gesture last week, the general manager of the Australian Olympic contingent asked the Socceroos to look after the younger members of the other sports in the group, a lot of whom wouldn't even have been outside Australia before.

It was overdue recognition of the rising status of our Socceroos on the world's sporting stage, and contrasts sharply with the attitude of that fellow in the Melbourne Olympic office who snubbed Oscar Crino's brother last week.

DOCKERTY CUP WRANGLE STILL SIMMERS

The row between the NSL clubs and the State League clubs over the timing of the Dockerty Cup rounds is still far from being resolved.

The SL clubs want the last four rounds, the first of which was due to be played on October 9, to be postponed until late November, when they resume training for the 1989 NSL season.

Those State League clubs have survived the preliminary rounds objecting to the cost of keeping their players in training for another month.

A State League Management committee meeting on Tuesday night proved indecisive as two clubs, Green Gully and St Albans didn't attend, and the others were split.

Some clubs which were adamantly opposed to delaying the Cup are now wavering.

They appear to have had their arms twisted by VSF officials who fear the sponsor, Ricoh Cameras, might be displeased at the prospect of a Dockerty Cup shorn of the NSL clubs.

So the saga drags on....

NO PUSSYCATS OR POOFTERS FOR ME... SAYS AROK

Socceroo coach Frank Arok, naming his team for the all-important Olympics opening game against Yugoslavia stressed the importance of getting his players into the right mental attitude.

"I don't want any pussy cats' or poofers on my team" he said, in a mood reminiscent of the "mad dog" stance he adopted before the 1985 World Cup eliminator against Scotland.

"The whole future of Australian soccer hinges on what we do here"

The Socceroos have been somewhat frustrated in their attempts to arrange practice matches with first Sweden and then Italy crying off, and had to resort to playing a local Korean team.

ADELAIDE'S CROATIA PULLS OUT

As we forecast in this column last week, Adelaide Croatia has had second thoughts about taking part in the NSL playoffs and has withdrawn.

The playoffs will now be between the Queensland champion and the Victorian State League champion, provided the latter is either St Albans, or Thomastown Heidelberg.

South Australian State League runner-up, Adelaide Hellas applied for permission to take Adelaide Croatia's place, but was refused.

OUR COACHES COP THE LOT!

● Terry Hennessy.

● Bill Murray.

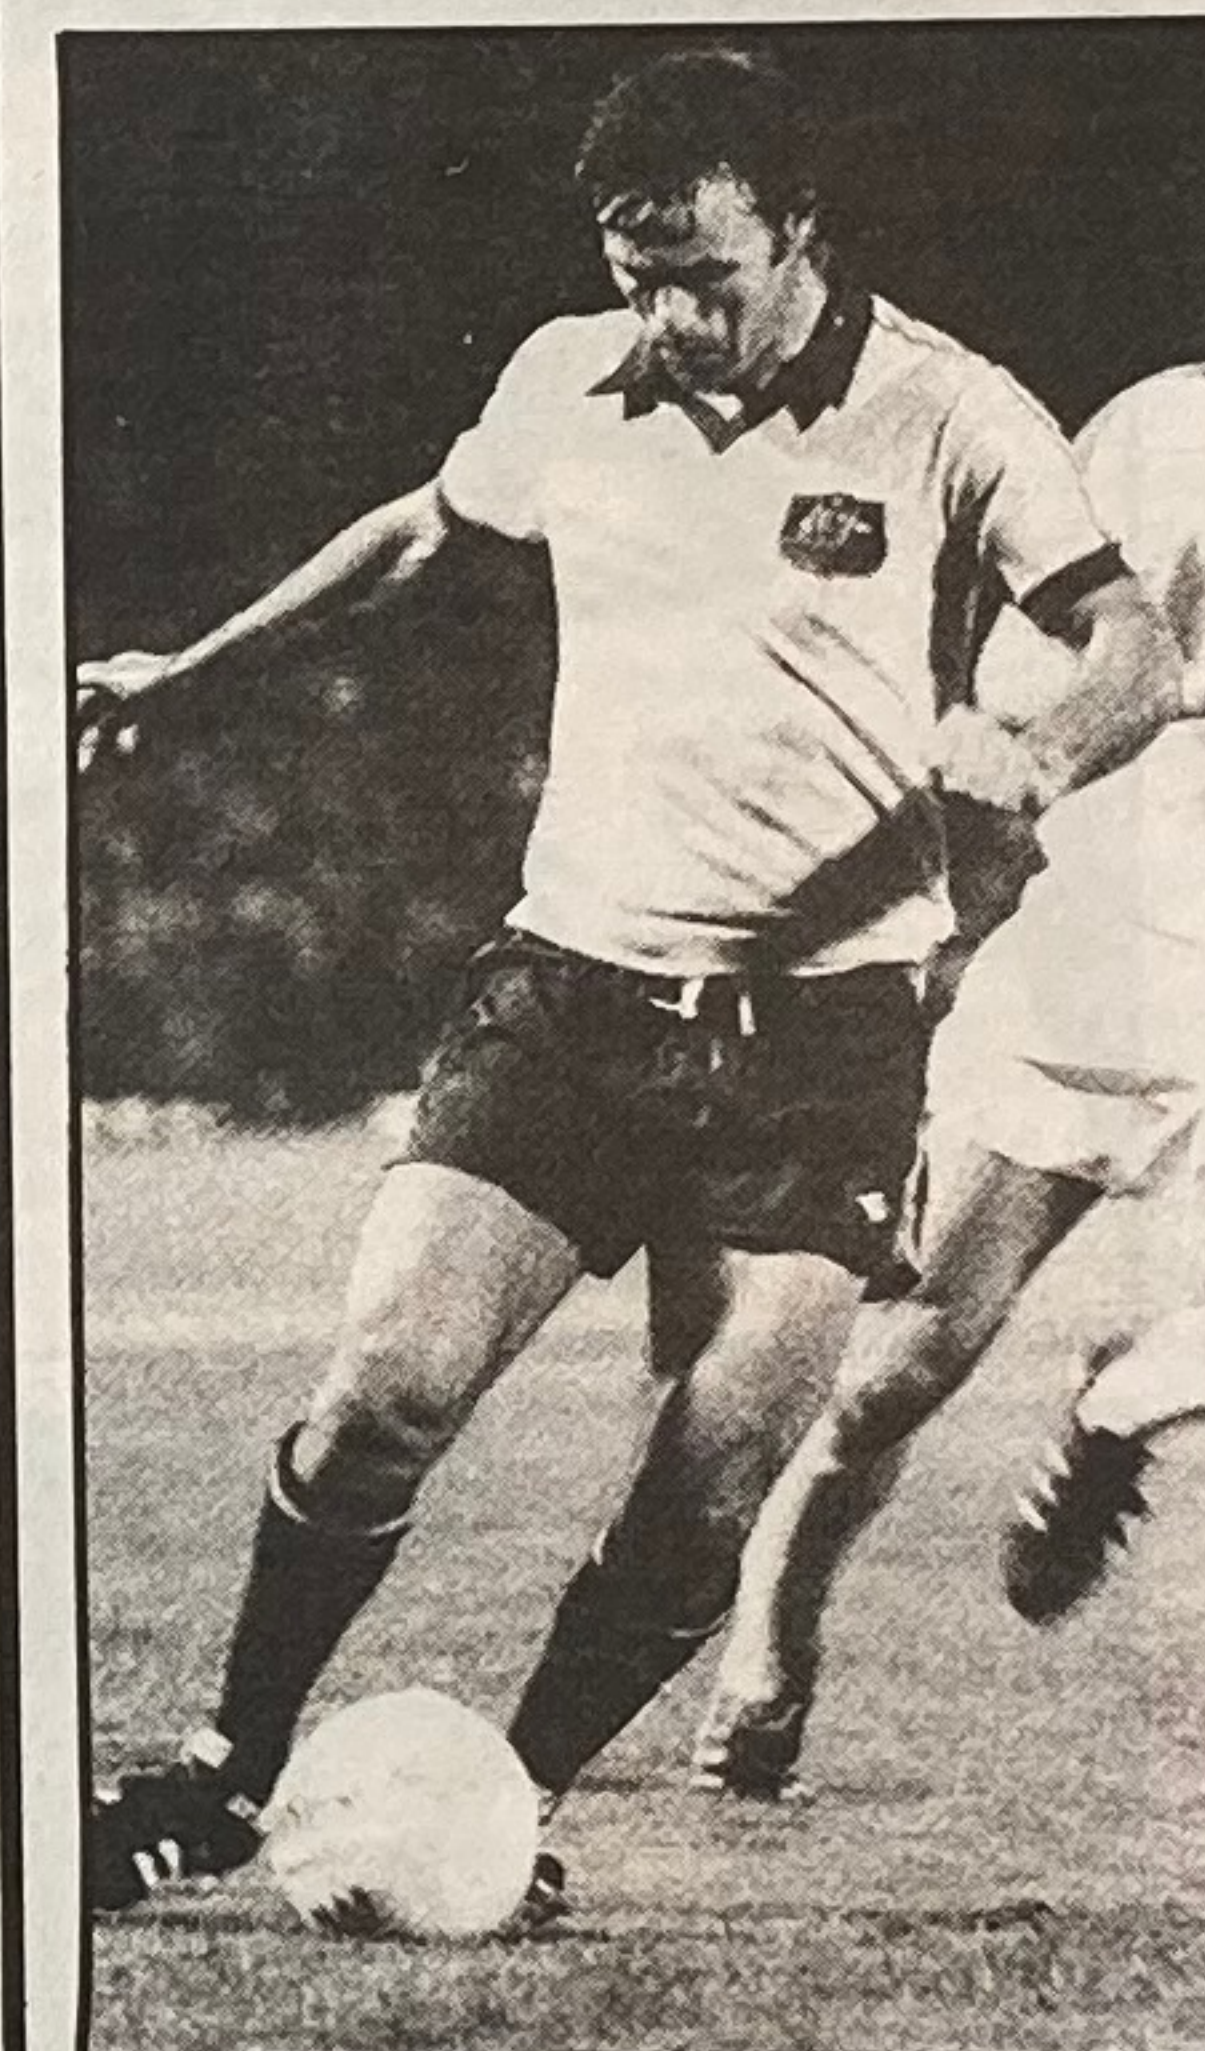

● Frank McAleer.

● Len McKendry.

By BOB BRIAN of the Melbourne Herald

● Jimmy Rooney.

THERE has never been any doubt that coaching a soccer club in Australia is about as stable and rewarding as selling lawn mowers in the Sahara. Maybe even less so and there is the odd oasis among the sand dunes that can be quite fruitful.

Actually it may be a trifle unfair to put Australia in the same category as Victoria. When you think about it, clubs in New South Wales are not as fickle as our own.

The same could also be said for Queensland and South Australia, where stability is considered to be an admirable quality well worth encouraging. For some strange reason, only Victoria — and more precisely, Melbourne — likes to flirt with uncertainty.

Perhaps the changeable weather has a lot to do with the ever-changing moods of those who run soccer clubs when they can drag themselves away from their business interests.

Let's be honest, many of those people are not involved in the game for what they can put into it. They are more interested in what they can get out of it and they obviously are not too keen on having their "rewards" affected by the whims of someone else — even if he does know more about the game than they do.

This season has shown us just how ridiculous some clubs can be as Len McKendry, Jimmy Rooney (Bulleen) and Bill Murray all got their marching orders.

Was not Frank McAleer sacked by Fawcner after only two games? What could possibly have happened in such a short time to induce such obvious panic?

DIADORA SALUTES PAUL WADE WELL DONE — WADEY

N.S.L. ROTHMANS MEDAL WINNER 1988

BELOW — WADE'S CAREER IN PICTURES — CROYDON TO AUSTRALIA

STATE LEAGUE

CAULFIELD CITY 1
(Goutzioulis 89th)
RINGWOOD CITY 5
(Cocker 22nd, 30th, 51st, 78th, Lepre 67th)

IT absolutely rained goals at Princes Park on Saturday, as Ringwood City handed out its second drubbing in as many weeks with the victims, Caulfield City capping a 5-1 hiding. A four-goal burst by Ringwood's Peter Cocker no doubt enhanced his side's chances of beating the drop, whilst simultaneously destroying Caulfield's slim hope of capturing the State League championship.

Cocker continued where he left off in the previous week's 7-1 demolition of Bulleen, where he bagged two goals, by opening the scoring with a header from a corner in the 22nd minute of the first half.

Approaching the 30 minute mark Cocker repeated the dose with a second goal, a free kick placed deep into the Ringwood eighteen yard box by John Corvan was pounced upon by Cocker, whose header lobbed over Caulfield 'keeper rober tMadjer, and scrapped in just underneath the woodwork.

After the break Caulfield pushed forward in the search of salvaging at least a point. But, time and time again, the Caulfield forwards were caught off side and only made themselves more vulnerable in defence.

This freedom was exposed in the 51st minute when Piero Lepre made a dashing run down the left flank and cracked a left foot drive. Madjer only managed to parry the shot straight into the path of Cocker, enabling him to complete his hat trick with an easy tap in.

In the 67th minute Ringwood got goal number four, after a defensive mistake by Caulfield pair Cesar Fattore and Paul Harris was intercepted by the ever present Cocker, whose cross gave Lepre the simple task of side footing the ball past Madjer.

The goals continued in the 78th minute and yes, it was that man Cocker again. In a dazzling run beginning just after the half way line, he beat an oncoming defender, rounded the stranded Madjer and shrugged off a Pepe Abraam challenge to score into an empty net.

If that wasn't enough, a sixth goal, this time put away by John Nijholt was, fortunately for Caulfield disallowed for offside.

Then just as we all thought the game was over, Caulfield striker Angie Goutzioulis popped up from nowhere to score

the home side's consolation goal from a corner. — Con Koutropoulos

HEIDELBERG UTD 0 MARIBYRNONG 0

IN a dull encounter, reigning State League champion Maribyrnong drew 0-0 with high-flying Heidelberg United, at Olympic Village on Sunday.

With a strong and gusty wind at its back, Heidelberg dominated the entire first half and continuously let loose shots from outside the 18 yard box, in an effort to break the deadlock. Unfortunately, their accuracy left a lot to be desired.

The trend continued in the second half, which must have been terribly frustrating for newly-appointed Heidelberg coach Jim Tansey and the 'Berger faithful.

The sensation of the match occurred in the 69th minute when, within one minute of replacing Peter Cazpnik, Maribyrnong substitute Janusz Baran was given his marching orders for head-butting Heidelberg's Andy O'Dell, after being robbed of the ball.

Despite that disadvantage Stefan Mila and Co. managed to keep Heidelberg at bay and held on to secure a crucial away point. The result also prevented Heidelberg from recapturing top spot on the State League ladder.

PROVISIONAL LEAGUE

MOSSFIEL 0

CLAYTON: Szabo, Potiris, Pansino, Smith, Broxham, Di Iorio, D'Angelo, Bastasin, Wells, Riccioni, Calenda, Ruffolo, Reid. MOSSFIEL: Kettensteiner, Early, Fry, Murray, Leonard, Digioacchino, Gibb, Elliot, Kearney, Head, Kearney, Grey, McGowan.

In very wet conditions, Mossfiel put pressure on Clayton's defence early but two good saves by Szabo stopped what could have been certain goals.

Clayton played the game as if it could win at any time and by doing this Szabo stopped what could have been certain goals.

At half time, after a few well chosen words from coach Frank Ruffold, Clayton's players decided to start playing the type of football that they are capable of and gradually started to get on top with only minutes to go. Bastasin, from a well hit ball from midfield, beat the Mossfiel defence, ran round keeper Kettensteiner only to see his shot go passed the post.

In injury time Mark Wells hit a good ball across the face of goal which was followed by fullback Pansino to give Clayton a 1-0 win at home.

Best players: Clayton — Broxham, Wells, Pansino. Mossfiel — Fry, Murray, Gibb.

DIVISION TWO DINGLEY/SKYE 1 LALOR 1

HOME TEAM: Traynor, Skledar, Kennedy, Cliffe, Fox, Petrie, Woods, Dodds, Housley, Scalzo, Donlan, Buckley. VISITORS: Sapardianis, Damianopoulos, Votskoc, Dives, Sakouleras, Patkas, Coldric, Tsorandopoulos, Toufas, Tsaplias, Metaxas, Dimitriou.

The home team was lining up for its sixth game without loss on Saturday. Within 60 seconds Lalor had been awarded a goal when Sakouleras had managed to get the ball just over the goal line. From then on it was a even battle in atrocious conditions marred by off-the-ball incidents and persistent arguing with the referee. Skye's best move of the day resulted in a goal when Woodsy dispersed the Lalor defender, passed it through to Dodds who made no mistake in slipping it past the 'keeper. Overall a fair result from a hard-fought game.

Waverley-Mulgrave Reserves continued on their winning way with a good 2-0 win over South Yarra. Waverley/Mulgrave started with determination and scored the first goal at the 21st minute mark through Sam Rachele. This goal lifted the team and Phil Keighley at the 32nd minute scored Wav./Mulgrave's second.

In the second half, the rain kept falling and it was hard to play good soccer. The two teams (and a courageous club referee), finished without adding to

AN energetic, enthusiastic and totally committed Meadow Park proved yet that on the day, a lowly-placed team is capable of springing a surprise on a more fancied opponent.

An opportunist 12th-minute goal by Grobas shook the league leaders but Yildirim's "text book" equalising header, from Sam Simazovski's right-wing cross, put the visitors back on course.

Thereafter the high-scoring Dandenong team had countless opportunities to put this game out of reach of Meadow Park.

It simply wasn't South's day. Perhaps the turning point came when Dimasi saved Jusic's firmly-struck penalty kick. This put more life into an already fired-up home side while heaping additional frustration on the South team who saw the game slipping from their grasp. Sloppy defensive work gave Hojski an easy winner late in the game, sending South home with plenty to think about.

HEIDELBERG STAGGERING TO TITLE

CAULFIELD COLLAPSES SET BACK FOR SAINTS

LAST weekend's State League round left us all still in the dark as to the eventual destination of the championship, with all the main contenders floundering once again.

Almost unbelievably, all six top teams failed to win, further reinforcing the belief that this is one of the most evenly balanced State League competitions ever.

With only two rounds left, it seems incredible that only two clubs, Morwell Falcons and Ringwood City, have managed to put together successive wins in the last two rounds.

Green Gully, St Albans, Heidelberg and Thomastown all tossed away golden opportunities to break away from the pack and all were defied by teams from the danger zone.

Leader Thomastown was held to a draw at Western Suburbs where the home team was reduced to ten men for the last twenty minutes and plucky Maribyrnong kept a frustrated Heidelberg scoreless despite having Janusz Baran sent off.

RINGWOOD SLAMS CAULFIELD
But neither Western Suburbs nor Maribyrnong could deflect the limelight away from Ringwood City for the second week in succession.

The Orangemen followed up their remarkable 7-1 annihilation of Bulleen the week before with an equally startling 5-1 demolition of Caulfield City and away from home at that!

And striker Peter Cocker went one better than the previous week's hat-trick hero, teammate John Nijholt, by slamming four goals past the hapless Blues' goalkeeper who probably would prefer to remain anonymous.

Even allowing for the fact that Caulfield week by week demonstrates that it is the most in and out, unpredictable team ever to play the game, and reserves its worst performance for its home games, nevertheless, the bald facts of the matter are that Ringwood City has now plundered twelve goals from its last two outings and is nicely poised to finish in the top four... which is a far cry from its pre-season modest ambition of avoiding relegation.

What is Ringwood's secret? There isn't any simple answer to that one, it's like saying how did Wimbledon win the Cup, or how did Wollongong finish up on top of the NSL ladder, but one clue is that Ringwood play it very simple.

It was glaringly obvious on Saturday that Ringwood's no-frills, direct approach was going to pay off far more handsomely than Caulfield's tip-tap, after you Claud attitude.

Ringwood's players demonstrated that they have grasped the game's essentials and by playing it simple and quick and going straight down the ground they ripped Caulfield apart.

Heidelberg's problem, it seems, is that its players are trying too hard to win. They walked off the field with heads bowed, as Baran came on to replace Peter Czapnik, was tackled by Andy O'Dell, whom he head-butted and was sent off all in the space of a minute. Despite the handicap, Maribyrnong fought on stoutly and was rewarded with a point that could yet prove decisive.

You'd think that Caulfield would have learned the lesson by now, back in round 17 it suffered the same humiliation when it was thrashed at home by Thomastown, which played the same game as Ringwood, simple and direct.

That defeat saw the departure of coach Rocco Ilie, but the players' attitude didn't change and as a result the club has surrendered any hope of finishing in the top four and it's only lucky in that it collected enough points early on to keep it safe, but it could finish as low as eighth.

One thing is certain, there will be an almighty shake-up at Caulfield during the close season.

HEIDELBERG'S PLAYERS UNDER PRESSURE
The other game I saw at the weekend was the one between Heidelberg and Maribyrnong at Olympic Village.

Neither team came to grips with the conditions, the wind at times approached gale force, but it was a mighty effort by Maribyrnong, which lost the services of Janusz Baran twenty minutes from the end but still managed to hold out.

It's not so long ago that we in this newspaper were praising the Bulleen committee for having patience with Rooney as his team struggled to come to grips with its newly promoted status.

But we take it all back, Bulleen's hierarchy turns out to be no more praiseworthy than any other when the chips are down, and if it gets relegated, it will only be getting what it deserves.

Rooney was behind the eight ball from the start, but he persevered doggedly... so why sack him with only three games to go?

When a team is struggling against relegation it needs togetherness, not the divisiveness and upheaval that sacking the coach brings.

THEY BREED THEM TOUGH IN MORWELL
Last week we wrote about Morwell's bad luck in having both Jeff Doyle and Emil Bruns injured early in the game at Oakleigh and doubting whether they would be able to play against St Albans.

A long time back, before the halfway mark of this season, in fact, we thought we had it all worked out that either Northcote or Heidelberg would win the League and that their meeting in the last round would give one of them the championship.

Now, how wrong can you be!

Northcote, after being a contender for 17 rounds has fallen away so badly in recent weeks that it will probably be happy to finish out of the bottom seven.

BULLEEN DUMPS ROONEY
Bulleen's reaction to that 7-1 defeat by Ringwood City last week but one was swift and harsh, the usual reflex action by a desperate committee, sack the coach.

breed 'em tough in the Valley and not only did both play. Emil Bruns was the man of the match and he put the League's top goalscorer Ivan Kelic in his pocket.

Falcons' two successive wins give them renewed hope of avoiding the drop, it isn't going to be easy, but after last week's effort, it would be a bold man who would write them off yet.

THOMASTOWN FUMBLES BIG CHANCE
Western Suburbs, already doomed to relegation put up a brave fight against Thomastown in a game that could yet prove to be decisive as far as the title is concerned.

Thomastown's players are still kicking themselves for not being able to clinch victory against a team that had to struggle with ten men for the best part of an hour after Steve Dimovski was sent off.

He said "Victorian soccer is losing support because of the poor standard of refereeing. "People come to see a game of soccer, not a virtuoso solo performance by the man in black.

"We struggled on for fifty-five minutes after our captain Steve Dimovski was sent off after what I thought was a perfectly fair tackle.

"With only a few minutes to go, Darren Tuck shot for goal, a defender clearly deflected the shot with his arm, and the referee awarded a corner.

"I don't normally criticise referees but his ref's performance disgusted me."

Although I didn't see this game, I have to agree with Kulak's opening remarks about the standard of refereeing.

I think the whole question of refereeing appointments should be looked into. This is the most traumatic State League season we have gone through since Federation and as far as some clubs are concerned, it is quite literally a matter of life and death.

Yet refereeing appointments seem to be made in so haphazard a fashion as to defy description.

For instance, this weekend a referee who has turned fifty years of age and who is retiring from Grade One at the end of the year has not one, but two State League games this weekend, one on Saturday and one on Sunday.

Yet a much younger man, who in his first NSL season has handled pressure games in Sydney and Adelaide is buried away down in a Third Division game!

Where is the common-sense to that?

VSF MUST ACT ON FINAL ROUND

Another burning question that needs to be settled before it causes a furore is the matter of the last round of the season, being played on two days.

The VSF quite rightly insists that all postponed games are cleared up before the last round, yet it doesn't seem perturbed at the fact that six clubs, among them two championship hopefuls, will have completed their season the day before the other ten!

If for argument's sake, the League championship comes down to a matter of Thomastown or Heidelberg, would it be fair to Thomastown, who play at Morwell on the Saturday if Heidelberg would know what result it needed to win the League.

Conversely, would it be fair to Morwell Falcons either?

This weekend's games, with probable winners in capitals:

SATURDAY: Oakleigh v CAULFIELD CITY at Caloola Reserve, ST ALBANS v Bulleen at Churchill Reserve.

SUNDAY: MARIBYRNONG v Western Suburbs at Raleigh Reserve, Box Hill v Heidelberg (draw) at Wembley Park, Northcote City v Green Gully (draw) at John Cain Reserve, Springvale City v MORWELL FALCONS at Ross Reserve, THOMASTOWN v Croydon City at Partridge Reserve, RINGWOOD CITY v Fawkner at Jubilee Park.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE ROUND-UP

ST Albans Dynamo gave a reminder of how much better they should have done this season in knocking off league champions Middle Park 1-0 by courtesy of a 12th minute pile-driver from left-back Zdenko Brkljacic.

Actually the St Albans' players and officials had three obstacles to overcome — Middle Park, gale-force winds and the depredations of yahoos who had driven a car to the centre of their pitch, and there set fire to it and just to round out a fun-filled night, went about destroying both sets of goalposts.

Normally, the Dynamos would have switched on to their parent club's State League pitch, but this was occupied by their juniors. Undaunted, they then chose an area of vacant ground, erected goalposts marked out a pitch and got the fixture under way. If marks were given for endeavour, the St Albans Boys would get 11 out of 10.

The game itself was never a great spectacle, marred both by the powerfully gusting wind and by the fact that there had not been time to mow an overgrown growth of grass. Still, both teams did the best they could, and played the game in such excellent spirit that not only were there no cautions issued, but there were far less stoppages than normal for free kicks. Dynamo hung on to its early lead with best on ground, Brkljacic, impassable in defence.

10 minutes into the second half. From then on it was all Windsor, or, more accurately Chris Katirgoglu who scored at the 55th, 60th, and 80th minutes, to give his side a reasonably comfortable 3-1 victory.

Dandy Dynamo, meanwhile, returned to its winning ways, albeit only after a nail-biting encounter with Berwick United, finally scraping in by the odd goal in five. As a result, the Dandies moved into third at the expense of Thomastown United, which was held to a fiercely contested 1-1 draw by Rowville United.

Flamingo had an easy 6-1 win over Dandenong United, while North Dandenong Sparrows won 3-1 away to Preston Pythons.

Apart from the championship, which belongs to Windsor, nothing is settled in this Division. Rowville is sitting in second on 23 points, closely pursued by Dandy Dynamo and Thomastown United, each on 22. Only two points further back are Flamingo and North Dandenong Sparrows. The runners-up berth and the composition of the Final Four are still up for grabs in Round 18.

Apart from Dallas, which keeps on winning with monotonous regularity, the inconsistency of Division Three East sides remains unmatched.

Second-placed Keeley Kings got themselves a king-sized 4-0 hiding from Laminex (6th); third-placed Essendon Tramway went down 3-4 to wooden spooners Kew Deaf, while Garden City (fourth) were held to a 1-1 draw by Bowater (5th).

All that Sunday's results achieved was to make the composition of the Top Four even more confused. As a result of its loss, Essendon Tramway drops from third to fifth, and is now only a point clear of Laminex. In this division again, Round 18 is all important to at least four teams.

In Division Three West, the Top Four was decided in this round, with Keilor Old Boys and Altona Heights picking up have the easier engagement this week, as the Eagles are up against Montrose, which is determined not to let its ninth place standing deter it from beating much better opposition. If both Fibremakers and the Eagles win this week, the Eagles will need a win against Fibremakers in their postponed fixture on the 25th.

As usual, Division 2A presents the real challenge, as Rowville United and North Dandenong Sparrows are locked together on 29 points, with Flamingo only one point further back.

In the last two rounds, the Flamingos have rattled on 2 goals to nothing and if they maintain this form against Dandy Dynamo next week, look certain to finish on 30 points. They will then be depending on Rowville United and North Dandenong Sparrows to draw their encounter, allowing them to sneak into the finally end the Trammies' dream of the runners-up spot.

That battle is now to be decided between RAAF College and Salesian College Old Boys, and could well be determined in this weekend's clash between these two teams.

In the Reserves competition, Middle Park and Hampton Park will be champion and runner-up, but which is which depends on next week's matches. On the basis that Middle Park has the score on the board, a two-point lead and superior goal difference, it must be favoured to take out the League and League Reserves double.

The same can be said in Division 2M Reserves, where Fibremakers United enjoys a two-point break on Springvale Eagles.
